We set up our stuff and unpacked. Later we got to play Paintball which was very, very fun. We got to team up against each other. For the rest of the evening we could do whatever we wanted around the campsite. We had a barbeque and a campfire. We attempted to go to bed but no one slept through the night so we did not get much sleep. The next morning when we got up it was raining quite a lot so we could not do very much. We did a few activities and then had a quick bike ride home and then caught the ferry back. As soon as we got back we had warm showers which was very nice.
